Travel Advisors operating at the retail level agree not to buy Keywords that include Trademarks owned by Sandals or Beaches, such as Sandals, Beaches, WeddingMoons®, FamilyMoons®, individual resort property names (collectively "Marks"), or misspellings of the Marks, for use in any form of paid search engine referencing or domain names (URL).

Travel Advisor agrees that damages for the unauthorized use of the Marks are difficult to calculate and therefore agrees to pay $1,000 per violation of the Keyword and Domain policy. Travel Advisor and Unique Vacations, Inc. agree that the $1,000 payment for the first violation of the policy will not become due and payable if, within two (2) days of travel advisor being notified of the violation, travel advisor ceases use of the offending keyword or domain name. Travel advisor further agrees that repeated violations may result in the termination of CSS status.

I hereby maintain that we have read the above and agree that all identified advisors will abide by the rules and regulations outlined in the CSS program.

Code of Conduct for Travel Advisors

Sandals and Beaches have instituted this “Travel Advisors Code of Conduct” to continue to maintain the professionalism of all travel advisors when visiting our resorts.

Travel Advisors are requested to abide by this “Travel Advisors Code of Conduct” when visiting the resorts for any of the following visits including but not limited to “Points To Paradise”, Travel Advisor discounted rates, Caribbean Experience trips, Day Passes or on independent resort tours:

- Travel Advisor identification (IATA cards only) must be presented upon check-in. Failure to provide a valid IATA card will result in the full rate being applied and required upon check-in.
- No soliciting of guests on resort property to change future booking to your agency or to another resort or destination.
- No soliciting of travel advisors, guests or employees to join MLM (Multi-Level Marketing Schemes).
- No soliciting of travel advisors, guests or employees to join another travel agency.
- Do not attempt to connect via social media with guests you meet while on property.
- Maintain professionalism at all times and adhere to appointment times as stated.
- Dress appropriately – Follow the established dress codes at resort restaurants.
- Promotional items which display your agency name, logo or contact information may not be worn or distributed to guests or staff. This includes but is not limited to badges, buttons, shirts, bags, pens, business cards, etc.
- The discounted rate on which you are traveling must remain confidential and should not be discussed when speaking with full-revenue guests on resort property. Under no circumstances should you mention you are a travel professional or discuss the cost of your trip.
- Travel Advisors room assignments are confirmed based on availability at time of check-in, while taking Travel Advisors status into consideration. We do our best to give our Travel Advisor partners the best rooms available at time of check-in. Do not request a room upgrade while at the resort.
- There will be times when you are permitted to bring a companion who is not a travel advisor; your companion is also expected to maintain the same level of professionalism.
- Travel Advisors agree to never contact a user from the Resorts' social media platforms. This includes, responding directly to comments or private messaging of users found on the Resorts' social media platforms. The first offense will result in immediate banning from the social media platform, any further offenses will result in immediate termination of the travel advisor's ability to sell the Resorts' products and services.
