Sandals La Toc Golf Club started life as Cunard La Toc in 1972 and then became Sandals La Toc Golf Club April 1993. This nine (9) holes executive golf course was designed by Richard Kolan. The Sandals La Toc Golf course has a well-deserved reputation of being both fun and demanding. Your round starts by winding through a lowland valley lined with mango, wax apples, coconut, cashew nuts and magnolia trees. The par 5, on the seventh hole takes you high above the resort to a green nestled on the side of a bluff providing a magnificent view of the Caribbean Sea. The golf course is challenging, but fair. 113 slope from the blue trees, and also 109 slope from the red trees, with a measurement of 3300 yards par33.
